

DataNet Quality Systems Knowledgebase

What is the difference between the '.Mean' and '.Avg' statistics in the equation builder?

In the WinSPC Equation Builder, the '.Mean' statistic refers to the plotted mean value of a specific subgroup (in other words, it is the mean of the samples associated with the subgroup).

The '.Avg' statistic, on the other hand, refers to the running average of all subgroups for that variable.

<https://knowledgebase.winspc.com/questions/247/>